"The miracle man," so he to he ming known, beganne of the solving of seemingly impossible military roblems, says the camp will be ready for all the troops in the State | * within the next day or two. This means that troops can be rushed in here as rapidly as the reifronds will permit. And despite all rumors to the ontrary, it is confidently aspected that the national guardemen will be mobilized here before their departure

The great problem which confronted the State soldiers was the matter of preparing a proper camp site for the encentration of a division. This has been accomplished, and the matter is now up to the United States Government, and the Poderal authorities will have to do a deal of outfitting before the citizen soldiers will be fully pre-
